Tax rebates apply subject to normal limitations:

For individual donors: Donations in excess of $5.00 qualify for a tax rebate. Under Section LD1 of the Income Tax Act 2007, individuals may claim back one-third of all donations they make up to the amount of their taxable income. If a receipt for a donation is issued in joint names, both people can make a claim for the donation rebate. However, the total of both claims cannot be more than the value of the total donation.
